

2018-2019 class schedules are now available for review on the parent and student portals. If you are not able to view the schedule, please call

618-457-3371 for assistance. If there is an error in your schedule, course change request forms can be completed in the Counseling Office. Errors include missing classes, incorrect placement, or duplicate classes. Any change request due to a scheduling error must be submitted in writing by 3:00 on August 6th. Any change requests made after that date will require administrative approval.
